THE 1967
MOHAWK

Central Davie High School

Presented by THE SENIOR CLASS

Central Davie High School

Mocksville, North Carolina

Editor

As Editor of the Mohawk '67, I hope that each reader will find on the following pages joy and entertainment as well as information.

In these few pages I, with the staff's help, have endeavored to preserve pictorially a part of the life of Central Davie as a stimulating memoir.

Foreword

The Mohawk Annual Staff of '67 has tried to put on a few pages, some of the facts that point up the seriousness and gaiety, of all our school days. We hope that each page will bring back a memory of some exciting moments that we spent here at Central Davie.

A lot of time and effort went into the making of this book and with this fact in mind, we would like to give our special thanks to the patrons and merchants. For it was through their momentary efforts that we were able to go so far.

To the teachers and all others who helped us so graciously, we thank you.

dedication

To a person who has instilled in our minds the idea of striving onward to success and to forever bear in mind our motto: "Fire, is the test of gold; Adversity of strong men."

We, the Senior Class, take great pleasure in dedicating the first edition of the "MOHAWK" to you...Mrs. ANGELINE HALL

appreciation

To Mr. J. Suiter, a man whose sense of humor has help to lessen our burdens through the years. He has become a part of us and is looked upon with respect.

We thank you.

To the students of Central Davie:

The future belongs to those who prepare for it; The road to success still has toll gates, and YOU must be willing to pay the price to travel on it.

This is your book—a book of memories that is perhaps more revealing for the things it omits than for those it includes. However, I hope that as you turn its pages, a snapshot, a word, an impression will convey to you in some intangible way a glad reminder of your school days at CENTRAL DAVIE.
